Amanuel Mellace

Lynchburg, VA | 315-335-4966 | Afmellace@liberty.edu | LinkedIn

Experience Report

- Digital Media and Journalism major at Liberty University with a concentration in Video Production, expected to graduate in 2026.

- Experienced in videography, video editing, and visual storytelling through campus media production and event coverage and freelance wedding videographer.

- Proven ability to collaborate with creative teams to plan and produce engaging video content.

- Passionate about using visual media to communicate stories, engage audiences, and support organizational goals.
- Seeking opportunities to apply creative production skills in a professional media environment while continuing to grow as a videographer.

Skills

- Video production, filming, and editing
- Visual storytelling and creative content development
- Team collaboration and project coordination
- Adaptable, detail-oriented, and quick learner

Experience

Student Videographer

Office of Spiritual Development (OSD) – Liberty University

April 2025 – Present

- Produce high-quality video content for campus events and initiatives to increase student engagement and communication.
- Collaborate with team members to brainstorm creative concepts and execute visual storytelling projects.
- Film, edit, and deliver video content while managing production schedules and meeting deadlines.
- Contribute to the overall media strategy by creating engaging visual content for campus audiences.

Education

Liberty University – Lynchburg, VA

Bachelor of Science in Digital Media and Journalism

Concentration: Video Production

Expected Graduation: 2026